

The City of
OKLAHOMA CITY
POLICE DEPARTMENT
Ron C. Bacý
Chief of Police

July 20, 2026

Identity of complainant redacted

Dear Identity of complainant
redacted

I have received your complaint wherein you alleged misconduct on the part of an officer of the Oklahoma City Police Department. After receiving your complaint an investigation was conducted by the employee's supervisor and that investigation has been reviewed through the officer's chain of command.

After a thorough review of the investigation and considering all of the facts and circumstances involved in the incident, I have concluded there is sufficient evidence to sustain allegations of misconduct against the officer. The officer's actions were not consistent with the standards of this department. Appropriate measures have been taken to correct the officer's behavior.

Identity of complainant
redacted

all employees of the Oklahoma City Police Department are required to conduct themselves professionally and responsibly at all times. I appreciate the opportunity to address your concerns and respond to you regarding our actions. I hope future contacts you may have with any member of the Oklahoma City Police Department will have a positive outcome.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Kreg Kettler", with a long horizontal line extending from the end of the signature.

Kreg Kettler, Major
Operations Bureau North, Springlake Division

The mission of the Oklahoma City Police Department is to deliver exceptional police services to our community with integrity, compassion, accountability, respect, and equity.

Public Records Exemptions

Enclosed please find a copy of the response documents for your public records request. The following information is provided to explain the process employed to review and produce the response documents.

Reason	Description	Pages
Identity of complainant redacted		1